50 Reminders of the Resurrection

Christians are Easter people. While we celebrate the day Christ was raised from the dead once a year, our entire lives are defined by, shaped by, and in response to Christ's resurrection. Throughout history, the church has tried to help Christians practice living out of the resurrection by celebrating a whole season of Easter, for 50 days following Easter Sunday. They sometimes called it "The 50 Great Days." This year, St. Peter's First is going to join that tradition. For the next 50 days, we want you to pay attention for signs of the resurrection. What reminds you of the resurrection? How do things in your everyday life point you to the hope of new life? Write down one a day for the next 50 days. Keep it simple by writing a single word or a short phrase. Be sure to share them with us—and with others—as a way of encouraging us toward a deeper, brighter faith.

Examples: Friendship, Being forgiven, Offering forgiveness, Blooming flowers, Kind neighbors, Beautiful song on the radio, etc.
